Crossroads CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A MAN AFTER GOD'S OWN HEART

Mark Palmer

Mark has been serving in the ministry since 1992 and has been serving at Crossroads since 2005. The focus of his ministry for 28 years was in the area of Children and Youth, serving at 2 other churches before coming to Crossroads. For 6 years he has served as the Digital Engagement Pastor at Crossroads. Mark now serves at Crossroads as the Associate Pastor and Pastoral Care. He also serves as the Missions Ministry Team overseer and loves to serve in this capacity to support, encourage and engage with those who serve around the world. He has also had the opportunity to over the years lead teenagers and adults on numerous stateside service trips and dozens of overseas mission trips to Brazil, Jordan and Japan. and he is the overseer of the Missions Ministry team. Mark likes to learn new things and try his hand at different projects.

He successfully remodeled his own kitchen and living room with no major problems so far. Mark likes to call himself "a perfectionist heart...I'm just not very good at it." Mark loves to travel to new places to connect with places and moments of history, to learn and experience new cultures, and to appreciate the beauty of God's creation. He has been known to dangle off the edge of one of the tallest buildings in New York as well as scale the Via Ferrata in Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland. On these adventures he might even have a Dr. Pepper in hand.

Matt Myer

Matt serves as the Preaching Minister at Olathe Christian Church, where he has faithfully taught for the past year. He also currently helps churches and non-profit organizations with their insurance needs. Before these roles, he spent over a decade directing a campus ministry at the University of Kansas, investing in the spiritual formation of college students and equipping them to follow Christ with conviction and purpose.

Matt has developed a heart for investing in others, helping individuals and communities deepen their faith and live out the Gospel in everyday life. Matt is a devoted husband and father who finds his greatest joy in his family. He and his wife, Lexi, have been married for 13 years and have three children (Audrey, Elijah, and Reagan). Together, they seek to model a life of discipleship and service. When he's not preaching or spending time with his family (and their two dogs), Matt enjoys connecting with others and cheering on the St. Louis Cardinals.

Chris Herre

Chris grew up in Prairie Village, Kansas, attended the Shawnee Mission school district, and graduated from the University of Kansas in 1980 with a degree in architecture. Chris met Marcia in 1979, and they were married in 1981. They have two daughters who both attended KU; one is in social media advertising in Nashville, Tennessee, and the other is a nurse in the Kansas City area. Chris gave his life to the Lord in high school and was a lifelong member of the Methodist church. Chris and Marcia joined Crossroads in 2010 and were baptized there. In 2023, Chris enrolled in seminary at Liberty University and completed a Master's of Christian Ministry. He was ordained in the Christian Church in 2025 and now preaches at Shawnee Hills Senior Living throughout the year. At Crossroads, he is serving on the welcome committee and has taught several small groups. In his spare time, Chris enjoys golf, artwork, traveling, riding his E-bike, and reading.
